Processions through public roads in front of places of worship.

* 1163 Q.—SRI M. NARAYANA KURUP : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state whether there is any order in force which prohibits taking out processions through public roads in front of mosques, churches, temples and other places of worship?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" There is no general order prohibiting the taking out of processions through public roads."

SRI M. NARAYANA KURUP :—" May I know whether there is any difference between ' procession ' and ' procession with music ' with reference to the answer given by the Hon. Minister? "

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" There is no difference, Sir."

DR. K. B. MENON :—" May I ask, in this connection, whether the Government have perused the report of the court of enquiry in connection with the Naduvattam firing incident and whether the promised statement would be made available to the House and whether the House will be given an opportunity to discuss it? "

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" A case is pending in that connection. So, I don't think it would be possible to place any statement on the table of the House and discuss it."

MR. SPEAKER :—" As the matter is sub judice, I pass on to the next question."
